By train + bus

For planning your trip you can use the website of the national railways (www.ns.nl) or www.9292ov.nl.

Train tickets can be purchased at train stations (Ticket office). Bus tickets can be purchased in the bus (Chauffer) or at ticket offices of the train stations.

From Amsterdam (Schiphol) Airport

- Take a train from Schiphol train station to Ede-Wageningen train station. This can be done by:
  1. Take the train in the direction of Nijmegen (platform 2 or 3 at Schiphol train station), remain seated till you reach station Ede-Wageningen (travelling time approx. 60 minutes).
  2. Take a train to Utrecht central station (travelling time approx 23 minutes). At Utrecht Central station take a train in the direction of Arnhem / Nijmegen (usually from platform 14), stopping at Ede-Wageningen (traveling time approx. 23 minutes).
- From Ede-Wageningen trainstation either take bus no. 88, 86 or 84 (destination Wageningen) to the Wageningen bus station (traveling time aprox. 20min) or a taxi straight to the Tropenbos office
- From the bus station in Wageningen it is a few minutes' walk along the Lawickse Allee, in the direction of Rhenen, to the Tropenbos office which is located at Lawickse Allee 11, beside the Hotel Hof van Wageningen.

From all directions:

- Take a train to the Ede-Wageningen train station. From there you can take bus 88, 86, 84 (a bus leaves approx. every 10 min) to the Wageningen bus station or a taxi straight to the office.
- From the bus station in Wageningen it is a few minutes walk along the Lawickse Allee, in the direction of Rhenen, to the Tropenbos office which is located at Lawickse Allee 11, beside the Hotel Hof van Wageningen.
